

Bring a touch - or two - of colour to your home

Can't decide on a lampshade colour? Design favourite Lane has the answer with its Twin Tone shade, now out in six options in collaboration with paint brand Little Green. Reasonably priced, they go by names such as Brighton (pale blue) and Mr David (yellow). £65, lanebypost.com

Bravo to bravas

The Co-op has a new tapas range, perfect for late summer picnics. There's lots of choice, including chicken and chorizo paella, patatas bravas and garlic and chilli prawns. Three for £6, co-operativefood.co.uk

The HOT List

Relax in style with great food, tipples and furniture

compiled by JENNY STALLARD

Luxury fit for royal assets

Whoa there. These are seriously impressive - as is the price. But you'll loaf like a king or queen in Coco Wolf's Bolgheri collection pieces, which may look like indoor sofas but are all prepped for outdoor use. They promise to let rain glide off their specially manufactured fabric, although you'd hope for sunshine with these in the garden. Bolgheri collection, including Masetto armchairs, from £2,484 each, and Masetto love seat (centre), from £3,350, cocowolf.co.uk

Want to add flair to a room? The printing's on the wall

We're rather taken with the simplicity of these prints from One Must Dash. The company normally dabbles in more striking images but has branched out (see what we did there) with monochrome florals. Titles include A Peony For Your Thoughts, Honey Honey and I Do I Do I Do. £55 each, 50x70cm, onemustdash.com

Keep wash days easy and your whites pristine

Sabichi's Lights & Darks laundry basket is a laundry-day lifesaver for those prone to dyeing disasters. £25, sabichi.co.uk

Well, blow me!

Be still, our beating gin-loving hearts - the new Sash Ink Blue tumblers from Dartington are delightful. They feature organic trails of cobalt colour and are hand-blown. To go with them, choose your poison from Ian Buxton's 101 Gins To Try Before You Die. £30 for a pair of tumblers, dartington.co.uk, 101 Gins To Try Before You Die (Birlinn Ltd, £12.99) is out on Thursday

Perfect for a bedtime read - you can quote us on that

Eve Sleep has created a new mattress with some literary inspiration. Made from natural latex, the mattresses have a bright yellow trim and, as well as plain designs, come with a variety of literary or notable quotes printed on them. There's a 100-day trial period and a ten-year guarantee. From £350 for a single, evemattress.co.uk